

Trainee Education Day

Public Health Aspects of IPC, including implications of travel

Tuesday 10 July 2018 | The BCEC, Birmingham

09:15 - 09:55	Registration and coffee
09:55 - 10:00	Welcome and introduction	Dr Jasmin Islam, University of Brighton and Brighton and Sussex Medical School and HIS Education Representative
10:00 - 10:20	Update on diphtheria	Joanne White, National Infection Service, PHE
10:20 - 10:45	How to manage (in) a diphtheria outbreak: experience from Bangladesh	Dr Vicki Parris, Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle
10:45 - 11:00	Monkeying around in Thailand	Dr Barnaby Flower, St. Georges Hospital, London
11:00 - 11:30	Zika Virus - what have we learned	Dr Emma Aarons - Rare and Imported Pathogens Laboratory (RIPL), PHE Porton
11:30 - 11:45	Coffee and tea
11:45 - 12:15	Epidemiology of current measles outbreaks and awareness of measles in migrant travellers	Dr Dipti Patel, University College London Hospitals NHS Trust
12:15 - 12:45	Community infection control: wildfires in the population	Dr Andrew Lee, Public Health, School of Health and Related Research (SCHARR), The University of Sheffield
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:15	The need for improving IPC measures to reduce HCAI in LMIC settings	Dr Bill Newsholme, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
14:15 - 15:00	Infection control and challenges in MDR TB	Dr Dominik Zenner, Consultant Epidemiologist and Head of TB Screening, Respiratory Diseases Department, PHE
15:00 - 15:30	Standardising PPE in Cat 4 infection – lessons for “routine” PPE	Dr Jenny Poller, Northern General Hospital, Sheffield
15:30 – 16:00	Afternoon tea and networking

