

DIPC Network and DIPC Development Programme
Influencing Others and Changing Behaviour
8 December 2017 | Royal College of Physicians, London

09:00 – 10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00 - 10:10	Introduction	Elizabeth Ridgway, Chair
10:10 - 10:45	Persuading, negotiating and influencing – how does the DIPC get support from the Board?	Dame Eileen Sills DBE, Chief Nurse Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
10:45 - 12:15	Workshop: Practical behaviour change theory and Identifying and addressing barriers to behaviour change	Dr Fabi Lorencatto, UCL Centre for Behaviour Change
12:15 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 13:30	Applying behaviour change to antimicrobial stewardship	Professor Peter Davey, Lead for Clinical QI, University of Dundee
13:30 - 14:00	How can behaviour change be harnessed to improve influenza vaccine uptake in HCW?	Professor Rob Rutter, Professor of Applied Social Psychology, Maastricht University
14:00 - 14:35	Hot Topic: Influenza and respiratory viruses - What's coming our way this season?	Professor Maria Zambon, Deputy Director of National Infection Service and Head of the UK WHO National Influenza Centre (NIC)
14:35 - 15:00	Coffee and tea
15:00 - 16:00	Personal development: self-preservation – how to develop personal resilience and deal with demands	Dr Matthew Critchlow, Director, Thrive, Leadership Development
14:25 – 14:55	Surviving CQC - what does IPC contribute to a successful inspection?	Sandi Carman, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
16:00 - 17:00	Social: Refreshments and networking

