

Investing in the future: quality improvement and education

22 June 2020

- 09:30 – 10:00 Registration and refreshments
- 10:00-12:00 Workshop – Quality Improvement
Rose Clegg
Including coffee
- 12:00 – 12:25 Experience of the “QI collaborative” approach in IPC
Lynn Stewart
- 12:25 – 12:50 Impact of Positive Feedback on Antimicrobial Stewardship in a Pediatric Intensive Care Unit: A Quality Improvement Project
Adrian C. Plunkett Consultant Paediatric Intensivist, Birmingham
Children’s Hospital (still to confirm his schedule)
- 12:50 – 13:00 Presentation and discussion DIPC role description
- 13:00 – 13:45 LUNCH and networking
- 13:45 – 14:15 Is QI important in the NHS and where does it fit in the big picture?
Dr Ruth Yates
- 14:15 – 14:45 Education in IPC – does it translate into reduced rates of infection?
Rose Gallagher (invited and chased 3/3)
- 14:45 – 15:15 Coffee and networking
- 15:15 – 15:45 Beyond IPC: Equipping your IPC workforce to educate and change others – what training and skills do they need?
Martin Kiernan
- 15:45 – 16:15 Hot Topic: Challenges of maintaining preparedness of staff to handle patients with high-risk infectious diseases
Stephen Mepham and Vicky Pang (Head of Infection control Nursing)
- 16:15 – 17:15 Drinks reception and networking